PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND PARDON

Loving God, you are forever drawing near to us.
You are always calling us to follow, asking us to journey with you.
Yet how often we choose easier paths and turn away from your voice.
We have not always done what you have asked us to do.
We have not always shown your compassion to others.
Sometimes, we have only been able to see our limitations and shortcomings.
Open our eyes to see the vision of your kingdom before us.
Open our lives to your presence, your assurance, and your blessing.

All may offer silent prayers of confession.

Hear the good news:
God meets us wherever we are,
offering to us salvation.
In the name of Jesus Christ, we all are forgiven.
Thanks be to God.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth.
You formed us in your image and breathed into us the breath of life.
You created us to love and be loved;
created us to seek relationship with you and with one another.

You are the father who gives to his children bread, not stones.

You are the mother who will not let her young face their fears alone.
You are the lover who longs to bring us home.
In you we live and move and have our being.

And so with your people on earth and all the company of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you and blessed is the One whom you sent in the fullness of time to be your song of joy;
the One who witnessed to the good news
first sung in the broken places of your heart.

Blessed is the one who walks down all the lonely and dusty roads with us,
The one who sings of resurrection,
so that listening, we might believe;
believing, we might understand,
and understanding, we might go forth to invite all to the feast:
to break bread and join your song of joy!

On the night when he faced death alone,
Jesus took bread, gave thanks to you,
broke it and said to his friends,
"This is my body, given for you."
Take. Taste. Share and remember.

After supper Jesus took the cup, blessed you, and said,
"This is my life, poured out for you."
"This is the cup of forgiveness for you, for others, for all."
Take. Taste. Share and remember.

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,
we offer ourselves as a holy, living sacrifice,
in union with Christ's offering for us as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here and on these gifts of bread and cup.

May our eyes be opened by the breaking of this bread,
so that we might see those around us
whose hopes and dreams have been broken by an uncaring world.
May our hearts be renewed so that we might be bread of life for the world;
that we might witness to a love stronger than death.

By your Spirit make us one with Christ,
one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world,
until Christ comes in justice and glory,
and we feast at your heavenly table.

Through the Risen One—Jesus Christ, the love of God—
and your Holy Spirit in your holy church,
all honor and glory is yours, almighty God,
now and forever.

Amen, Amen, Amen. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

GIVING AND RECEIVING OF BREAD AND CUP

PRAYER AFTER RECEIVING

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us.
Grant that we may go into the world
in the strength of your Spirit,
to give ourselves for others,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
